

The Hilton Honors Military Program strives to make the career transition easier for current and former military members and their families.

This program allows Veterans, transitioning service members, National Guard/Reservist, and military spouses to receive up to 100,000 points to stay at Hilton brand hotels for the following employment-related needs:

- Travel for verifiable job interviews
- Training needed to get or keep a job or leading to a certification
- Pre-employment testing such as physicals, drug testing and aptitude/agility tests

Eligible individuals can register for the program at any Alaska job center!
