

Trident Seafoods Recruitment

Hiring fish processors for the vessel fleet

Why do we know so much about the seafood we sell? Because we catch a lot of it ourselves aboard our own fleet of Trident vessels. We know our wild Alaska Pollock from the moment we see it on the sonar screen to the time it leaves the loading dock in a carton, bound for a seafood restaurant or retail market. It's this intimate knowledge and understanding of the ocean and our own products that sets us apart from our competition.

What we learn at sea aboard Trident vessels helps us better understand the fish we purchase from thousands of independent Alaska fishermen and other sources around the globe.

As a business, we took our first steps wearing rubber boots on a fishing deck. Trident is still a family of fishermen. And to this day nothing keeps us more focused on the things that matter.
